Headquarters: Via Volturno 15 · I-26900 Lodi, Italy · +39 0371 091065 · icons@icons.it · www.icons.it

Legal address: Piazza della Vittoria 1 · I-26900 Lodi, Italy · CF: 92563110151

ART. 1 | SUBJECT OF THE CALL

Art. 1.1. Characteristics of the Grants

The Grants enable the participation to a series of 4 (four) residencies of the European Union Baroque Orchestra [short: EUBO] covering the period January 2025 – December 2025, whose calendar is provisionally described in Art. 3.3.

Each Grant includes:

- Participation in the learning and artistic activities of EUBO, including Orchestra Residencies, specialized Workshops etc. to improve skills and experience in the performance of symphonic repertoire of the Baroque Era on period instruments.
- Participation in the scheduled concerts and recording activities at the end of each Residency.

Grantees will have to sign a binding Learning Agreement and commit to participate to all the scheduled Residencies and activities relevant to their instrument, their role within the orchestra and their own professionalizing path within EUBO.

Art. 1.2. Open Grants

The present Call is finalized to the award of new Learning Grants for a Learning Program covering the period January 2025 – December 2025. In particular, the following Grants are available to applicants for the following instruments:

- violin
- viola
- cello
- double bass
- oboe
- bassoon
- harpsichord

Art. 1.3. Grant Amount and Conditions

The amount of the Grant consists in a total lump-sum of 2.800 EUR (two thousand eight hundred Euros), gross of withholdings applicable in Italian law, for musicians winning the Grant for the categories of instrument described under Art. 1.2.

Fondazione ICONS will be fully in charge for organizing accommodation for grantees participating in artistic Residencies and on-site activities during their stay in Italy and abroad, and for the related expense.

Fondazione ICONS will cover the travelling costs for the orchestra during concert tours and the meals offered before each concert.

Fondazione ICONS will not cover the expenses of board and in- and outbound travelling to the destination specified in the Schedule (see Art. 3.3) that will be entirely borne by the Grantees. Fondazione ICONS will however try to offer special discounts for subsistence expenses to each Grantee, where possible and applicable.

Art 1.4. Qualified musicians for reserve list talent pool

A candidate can be qualified for EUBO's reserve list talent pool without being awarded one of the available full grants if he receives a positive evaluation from the jury following the auditions.

Qualified candidates will be included in a reserve list of musicians who may be offered a grant in case of renounce or withdrawal of awarded grants for their instrument.

In addition, qualified candidates are insert in a list of musicians that may be invited to join EUBO for specific productions and might be invited to take part in on-line activities of EUBO's learning cycle.

ART. 2 | AUDITIONS

Musical part

The auditions will be held in Frankfurt, Germany, in partnership with the Hochschule für Musik und Darstellende Kunst Frankfurt am Main (HfMDK), from Wednesday, 2 October o Friday, 4 October 2024 included.

The detailed schedule will be communicated together with the invitation to attend the audition session in person in Frankfurt in order to allow attendants to book their travel arrangements.

The auditions will be run as orchestra and chamber music workshops under the supervision of the Board of Examiners: as a consequence, candidates are required to attend the whole event (availability for the whole period).

Motivational interview

Candidates who passed the musical part of the auditions will be invited to a motivational interview which will take place online within one week after the musical part (between Saturday, 5 October and Saturday, 12 October 2024).

The individual interview time and the link to connect will be sent after the musical part, in the evening of Friday, 4 October 2024.

Art. 2.1. Requirements for participation

Exclusively musicians who meet the following mandatory requirements may apply for admission to the selections:

- Born on or after 1 January 1996.
- Citizenship of one of the Countries of the European Union or of the European Economic Area. Non-EU citizens may apply if they have a residence permit or visa in one of the Countries of the European Union, allowing them to travel, work and receive a study grant in the European Union.
- Not having received a study grant from ICONS for the participation in EUBO previously
- In-depth knowledge of performance praxis on authentic instruments.
- Use of period instruments or copies of period instrument.
- The use of the baroque bow for strings and baroque instruments for winds is mandatory during the Auditions.

Art. 2.2. Program of the Auditions

The musical programme will be published on the website www.eubo-orchestra.eu/auditions. Scores and parts will be sent together with the official invitation to attend the live audition and the detailed schedule by Sunday, 15 September 2024.

2.1 ORCHESTRAL PIECES

Johann Sebastian Bach: Ouverture-Suite n. 4 in D Major BWV 1069

Georg Friedrich Händel Concerto Grosso op.3 n.2 in Si bemolle Maggiore

2.2 CHAMBER MUSIC PIECES

The detailed chamber music programme and groups will be communicated (and the scores will be sent) together with the official invitation to attend the audition session in person

The pitch must be A=415 Hz for all instruments.

The use of the baroque bow for strings instruments is mandatory.

The Board of Examiners for the Auditions will be composed of

Alfredo Bernardini – Oboe, Principal Conductor

Gemma Longoni – Violin, Concertmaster

Christoph Dangel – Cello, Tutor

Mario Martinoli – Harpsichord, Artistic Director

Elena Gaboardi - Fondazione ICONS Board Member

Federica Bresciani – Fondazione ICONS Head of Human Resources

Art. 2.3. Award of the Grant

All candidates participating to the live auditions in Frankfurt will be ranked by the Boards of Examiners on a classification of merit, including motivational aspects.

Candidates with the highest score will be offered one of the available Grants. The remaining candidates, exceeding the availability of Grants, will not be admitted to the Learning Program of EUBO for the one-year period January 2025 – December 2025.

Art. 2.4. Further Procedures

If the present Call fails to identify sufficient eligible candidates, Fondazione ICONS reserves the right to launch subsequently a new contest based on Learning Qualifications and Examinations for the conferral of the remaining available Grants.

ART. 3 | PROCEDURE OF ALLOCATION AND REPORTING OF THE GRANTS

Art. 3.1. Grant allocation and payment

All Grants will start in January 2025 and will be running up to December 2025.

The allocation of the Grants will be subject to the signature by the Grantee and Fondazione ICONS, of a binding Learning Agreement reflecting the provisions laid down in this Call.

The allocation of the Grants will be subject to the actual performance of training activities proposed for each Learning Program based on the reference instrument.

The allocation will be made by bank transfer and will be paid by instalments based on the progress in the Learning Program for each category of instrument and type of Grant.

Art. 3.2. Revocation of Grant and suspension of the Learning Program

The Foundation reserves the right, to its unquestionable judgment, to revoke the Grant if the musician being awarded fails in the prescribed learning obligations, viz.:

- If the musician fails to attend the agreed number of residencies within the duration of the grant
- If the study activity and participation is judged qualitatively inadequate by Fondazione ICONS management and/or musical conductors and/or tutors and/or learning supervisors.

In case of voluntary waiver of the Grant, the Scholar must compulsorily submit a request for waiver to Fondazione ICONS, which shall be assessed and formally approved by the General Council of Fondazione ICONS.

In both cases, the amounts already paid should be returned in full to Fondazione ICONS within 30 days of the date of notification of revocation to the Grantee. The voluntary waiver of the Grant implies the exclusion from the learning program.

Art. 3.3. General Schedule

Each grantee will be scheduled for the residences listed below from the Learning Program of the period January 2025 – December 2025. The detailed schedule and activities for each grantee will be agreed individually and determined by the Individual Learning Plan [ILP], attached to the Learning Agreement.

The ILP will be communicate according to the following calendar:

- January 2025 – June 2025: the ILP will be sent to each grantee by 31 October 2024 and will include the residencies listed below (or, in special cases, a selection of these residencies).
- July 2025 – December 2025: an updated ILP with more details about the residencies will be sent to the grantee on a regular basis.

With the signature of the Learning agreement, the grantee commits to give priority to EUBO projects and to wait for the signature of each ILPs before accepting other commitments in that period.

Participation in concerts, or any recordings that will be organized at the end of each Residency, is compulsory and forms an integral part of the Learning Program. ART. 4 | APPLICATION

In order to participate to the Auditions, candidates must fill out the form available at the following link.

For further information, please do not hesitate to contact Susanna Bucher, artistic secretary, at susanna.bucher@icons.it.

Applications will be considered individually and judged as eligible only if provided with all the required documents.

Due to the high number of expected applications, the Board of Examiners might make a pre-selection on the basis of the CV and the video recording. Only a limited number of musicians will be invited to the audition sessions in Frankfurt.

Requirements for the Video:

- Repertoire: The candidate should perform two contrasting pieces from the baroque period of their choice (e.g. a fast and a slow movement).
- Period Instruments: Candidates must use period instruments with a Baroque setup. For strings, specific requirements can be found on our website in the auditions section.
- Pitch: must be A=415 Hz for all instruments.
- No Editing: The video must be unedited (no cuts or further changes).
- Audio Quality: The video should have good audio quality. Links to audio-only recordings (e.g. with a fixed picture) will not be accepted. A video with both image and sound is mandatory.
- Soloist Role: The candidate should perform in a soloist role. For example, chamber music recordings are accepted for violinists only if the candidate plays the first violin part.

The deadline for application submission is Tuesday, 3 September 2024, 23:59 pm (CET)

ART. 5 | NOTIFICATION OF THE OUTCOME

The outcome of the pre-selection and the official invitation to the audition sessions in Frankfurt from 2 to 4 October 2024 will be notified directly to each candidate as soon as possible and in due time to allow invited candidates to book travel arrangements.

ART. 6 | TRAVEL COSTS

Applicants are responsible for expenses incurred in connection with travel for the audition.

Applicants accept any traveling restrictions that might be issued by German authorities at the time of the auditions due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

ART. 7 | BINDING CLAUSE

Participation in this Call involves the candidate accepting all the provisions of this regulation.
